EASLEY APPOINTS ROYSTER TO DISTRICT COURT BENCH

RALEIGH - Gov. Mike Easley today appointed Theodore S. Royster, Jr. to the District Court bench in the 22nd Judicial District to fill the unexpired term of Judge Jack E. Klass. The 22nd Judicial District is comprised of Alexander, Davidson, Davie and Iredell counties.

"Ted Royster's extensive legal experience and longstanding ties to the community make him eminently qualified to serve on the District Court. His pragmatic and conscientious approach will serve the people of the 22nd Judicial District well," Easley said.

Royster has practiced law for almost 30 years. He has served as an Assistant District Attorney for the 22nd Judicial District and spent the last 25 years as a solo practitioner in Lexington working in the legal areas of criminal, civil, domestic, real estate, wills and estates, Workers' Compensation, and general trial practice.

Royster, a longtime resident of Davidson County, received his law degree from Samford University in 1973. He received his undergraduate degree from Wake Forest University in 1968.
